SUBJECT INDEX

Usage Guide

- All headwords and sub-headwords are in bold: example, Typology, tourist and listed in alphabetic order.
- 857 headwords are listed in this index. 169 of the headwords have subheadwords, totaling 1,100.
- For each entry, first the volume and then the page number are given: example, 18:12 refers to volume 18, page 12.
- Page number indicates the beginning of a topical article or a topical discussion within an indexed article.
- Special issues are listed by volume number and issue number in bold: example, Tourism, study of, 18(1) refers to a special issue on the study of tourism social science in volume 18, issue 1.
- A closed/inclusive cross-reference is linked to the headword under which all references to the topic are listed: example, Aboriginal (see Indigenous).
- An open/topical cross-reference is linked to related headwords under which references to similar topics are listed: example, Agritourism (see also Farm tourism; Rural tourism).
- Place names such as national regions, areas, or cities are listed under their respective country, transnational region, or continent: example, The United States, Hawaii.
- Biographical names are indexed as subheadwords under Obituary.
