

Name: _____

Student ID: _____

E-mail: _____

1. Which department and university did you attend for undergraduate or graduate studies before entering the Department of Life Sciences in NTNU?

2. Did you take any introductory ecology, evolution, statistics or genetics course in undergraduate or graduate studies?

3. What are your academic and 'non-academic' interests?

4. What are the topics of your thesis, dissertation or major (if any)?

5. Which laboratory in the Department of Life Sciences do you belong to (if any)?

6. What oceanic islands have you visited before, any particular experience or highlights?

7. What would you expect to learn from this course?

8. What's your career or long-term goal in life (after graduation from current degree or program)?

9. Which concept or theory of island biogeography is most relevant to your research interests and thesis research?

10. Any questions for the course in general before the start of the class?